

Sarah Duckworth

L-Lean & Continuous Improvement Manager European Finance Service Centre Kellogg's HR Shared Service, UK

Originally qualifying as a chartered accountant with Price Waterhouse, Sarah's first role outside of practice was with the Kellogg Company in their European Shared Service Operation based in Manchester (EFSC). During her fifteen year tenure at Kellogg, Sarah has worked in thirteen different roles across the business, including moves throughout various process and market roles in the EFSC, finance roles in all of the European manufacturing operations, a business partner role in the UK sales and marketing organisation, and various successful project assignments. Sarah has formally worked in continuous improvement since 2010, establishing the team in the EFSC and helping to embed LEAN methodologies. Her current role is the Continuous Improvement manager in the EFSC, where she has accountability for driving process innovation and supporting change initiatives throughout the finance team.
