

Valentin Ostrovskiy
Project Manager
Intercomp

Valentin Ostrovskiy is an expert in the development of financial and HR outsourcing services. He graduated from Saratov State University of Economics with a degree in accounting and got his second degree in law in Moscow University of Finance and Law (MFUA). For seven years he was in charge of the product development and implementation on the IT market. For the last 5 years he has been responsible for product development in Intercomp.